Employee Assistance Program

The College provides an Employee Assistance Program to full-time employees. This program may not be available to less than full-time employees or temporary employees; please check with Human Resources. A qualified service provider will maintain the Program. Employees and their dependent family members may participate in three sessions per fiscal year for counseling, crisis response, work-life balance services and supervisor resources with the provider at no cost. Services are completely confidential. Employees may access a 24-hour crisis line. For more information, employees may contact the Human Resource office.
