Transfer Credits Policy

Treasure Valley Community College accepts transfer credit from any regionally accredited institution. International credit may be accepted upon review (and translation if necessary) by an outside credential evaluator. Students who have received Military credits should refer to policy JECDA – TVCC Veterans Transfer of Credit.

Credits acceptable towards a degree or certificate program will be determined by the Registrar's Office. A maximum 66 quarter hours of transfer credit is accepted towards TVCC degrees, and a maximum 33 quarter hours will be accepted for certificate programs.

All transcripts received by the Registrar's Office become the property of TVCC. The Registrar's Office will not provide copies of transcripts from other institutions.
