International Students

Treasure Valley Community College recognizes the value of international students pursuing their course of study at our institution. These students have perspectives and experiences that benefit the college community, through their academic contributions and participation in student life.

The College's processes and procedures regarding international students shall follow state and federal policy and guidelines.

To facilitate the successful integration of International Students, the College shall do the following:

1. Establish processes and procedures related to admission.
2. Establish pertinent tuition and fees.
3. Establish processes and procedures that ensure international students have the English language proficiency necessary to pursue a college education.
