In-State Residency for Native American Residents

Whereas, community colleges are key to Oregon's economy and the quality of life of its citizens;

Whereas, community colleges provide high quality, accessible, and affordable education;

Whereas, community colleges are the key access point for post-secondary education in Oregon;

Whereas, community colleges are committed to open access; and

Whereas, community colleges are dedicated to providing open access to education and training opportunities to Oregon's citizens to take individuals where they are and where they want to go; and

Whereas, community colleges value Oregon tribes and the important role the tribes have in Oregon's local communities.

Now, therefore, be it resolved by the Treasure Valley Community College Board of Education:

Students who are enrolled members of federally recognized tribes of Oregon or who are enrolled members of a Native American tribe which had traditional and customary tribal boundaries that included parts of the state of Oregon or which had ceded or reserved lands within the state of Oregon shall be assessed resident tuition regardless of their state of residence.
