Visitor and Guest Policy

Treasure Valley Community College is dedicated to providing a positive and safe educational setting which promotes the advancement of knowledge, learning and involvement on campus. This is encouraged through the development of responsible, personal, and social conduct by students as prescribed in the Student Rights, Freedoms, and Responsibilities. By their presence at Treasure Valley Community College, visitors and guests assume the same obligations as students for performance and behavior relevant to the College's lawful process and functions.

Treasure Valley Community College reserves the right to remove visitors, guests and patrons of the college who are not enrolled if their behavior or actions are malicious, violate any current college policy, or threaten the safety of the campus, administration, faculty, staff or students. Treasure Valley Community College may also impose additional sanctions, including legal trespass orders, to visitors or guests if the behavior constitutes more severe action.
