

JOB TITLE: Assistant to the Stock Contractor

REPORTS TO: JC Harmon

LOCATION: Headquarters Vale, Oregon – travel required for rodeos

PAY: Depending on experience

Tri-State Rodeo/ Reed Ranch is looking for an enthusiastic student that would like to learn about stock contracting and ranching duties. The ranch/ headquarters is located 6 miles north of Vale, Oregon and the availability to travel is required. Tri-State/Reed Ranch is a strong conservative, Christian, family-oriented company that focuses on safety of the animals, personnel and animal husbandry.

A typical work week:

Monday: Put stock away in assigned pens/pastures from the prior weekends rodeo. Driving pickup and trailer, sorting, classing cattle.

Tuesday – Thursday: Flagging colts, building fence, irrigation, training roping cattle, building ranch horses.

Friday – Sunday: Gather and load rodeo stock, sorting stock, videoing, running gates, at rodeos throughout the Northwest. *Travel is required

Lodging and meals are provided when traveling. Depending on the ability and age of the student camps and school entry fees may be paid.