

Bachelor of Science in Nursing Advising Worksheet

This advising sheet outlines the suggested and required courses for a Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN). The specific courses suggested within each category can aid in transferring to a master's degree but are not required to be completed in the specific order to earn the BSN, if all BSN general category requirements are met.

Courses	Cr.	Qtr.	Gr.
Associates of Applied Science in Nursing (RN)	94
STAT 243Z – Elementary Statistics 1	4
BIOL 234 – Microbiology	4
Year 1
Fall
NUR 310 – Transition to Professional Nursing	6
NUR 312 – Concepts/Theories	6
Winter
NUR 316 - Global Health Promotion & Community Health	6
NUR 410 – Informatics in Healthcare	6
Spring
NUR 314 – Evidence-Based Practice	6
NUR 412 – Issues & Trends in Nursing	6
Year 2
Summer
NUR 414 – Advanced Pathophysiology / Pharmacology / Physical Assessment	6
NUR 416 – Leadership	6
Fall
NUR 418 – Capstone Didactic	6
NUR 420A – Capstone Clinical (Administration Management)	6
OR
NUR 420B – Capstone Clinical (Palliative Care)
OR
NUR 420C – Capstone Clinical (Underserved & Vulnerable Populations)
BSN Additional Degree Requirements
NUR 250 – National Council Licensure Examination for Registered Nurses (NCLEX) Prep (Credit for Prior Learning)	4
AND / OR
Electives
Any 100-400 level course to reach 180 required credits	8-16
Total BSN Program Credits
	180

1. Acceptance Requirements

- a. Successfully earn Associate of Applied Science in Nursing (RN)
- b. Obtain RN licensure within one (1) quarter (or 11-weeks) after entry into BSN program
- c. BIOL234 – Microbiology must be successfully passed with a letter grade C or better prior to enrollment in NUR314 – Evidence-Based Practice course.
- d. STAT243Z – Elementary Statistics 1 must be successfully passed with a letter grade C or better prior to enrollment in NUR316 – Global Health course.

2. General Education Requirements

- a. 16 credits of Science which includes Anatomy & Physiology (3 courses) and 4 credits of Microbiology (Microbiology could be taken in the BSN program if not offered by AAS degree)
- b. 8 credits of Writing (includes additional course above WR121 that involves technical writing)
- c. 6-8 credits of Behavioral or Social Sciences
- d. 4 credits of Math (pre-requisite to Stats)

3. Core Curriculum Requirements

- a. NUR310 – Transition to Professional Nursing must be taken in the first quarter
- b. NUR420 A, B, or C – Capstone Clinical must be taken in the last quarter

4. Suggested Electives

- a. BIOL 101 – General Biology (4 cr.)
- b. CHEM 104 – Survey of Chemistry (4 cr.)
- c. SOC 210 – Marriage/Family/Intimate Relations (3 cr.)
- d. PSYC 231 – Human Sexuality (3 cr.)
- e. COMM 111Z – Public Speaking (4 cr.)
- f. COMM 220 – Communication & Gender (4 cr.)
- g. HPE 295 – Health & Fitness for Life (3 cr.)

Students may also refer to the suggested courses listed on the AAOT advising sheet.

5. Institutional Requirements

- a. A letter grade “C” or better is needed to satisfy all requirements
- b. Sufficient college level credits (courses numbered 100 and above) in addition to the required program courses to total at least 180 credits